

8th

NATIONAL Character Education Symposium

Building Communities of Character

Gain insights, ideas and inspiration for effective character education
in your school

Teachers and Principals are invited to a presentation of successful practice, recent research and new resources that will assist schools to implement the values and key competencies of the New Zealand Curriculum. Come and learn how New Zealand schools are improving engagement and developing powerful models of student leadership by building character in their communities.

FEATURED PRESENTERS:

Professor Gael McDonald

Dean, Faculty of Business and Law
Professor, School of Management and Marketing Deakin University Melbourne.

Dan Reddiex

Principal Kings High School Dunedin.

John Heenan

Former Principal and author of *Building
Character through Cornerstone Values*.

PLUS...Breakout session options led by staff from 18
leading New Zealand Primary, Intermediate and Secondary schools.

Comments from our last symposium...

- "Very worthwhile day, useful ideas"
- "Of great help as we start to implement values/character education"
- "Excellent day with inspiring speakers"
- "A good range of case studies so could select those most applicable to own situation, thank you"
- "Helpful to see how schools are linking character education to the key competencies"
- "Very positive and motivating"

Friday 18 June 2010

9.00am - 3.00pm

Turnbull House

11 Bowen Street (opposite the Beehive)
Wellington

COST per school: $100.00

REGISTRATION/ENQUIRY: www.cornerstonevalues.org
or ph. 03 474 0825

New Zealand Foundation for Character Education Inc.

